Briefing

4. Briefing No. 2006-B0090

Implementation of the King County Sheriff's 100-Day Plan

Chair von Reichbauer introduced King County Sheriff Sue Rahr. Sheriff Rahr briefed the committee on changes she implemented in the department: budget changes in the department, department master plan, hiring of personnel manager, and a daily computer training module for officers. She discussed the three pillars of the 100 day plan: 1) neighborhood safety 2) accountability and 3) improving professionalism. She answered questions from the members on recent negative news articles on officer misconduct, the police bargaining unit, police contract cities, use of citizen review boards, meth labs and gang activity. Members requested to be briefed again when the Blue Ribbon Panel has submitted its report.
